

WINTER.

Written Especially for the Ocala Banner:

Around in gloom stern winter reigns,
With aspect chill and drear;
The streams are locked in icy chains,
The tempest howls severe.

No more is heard the songster's lays,
That echoed through the grove;
The robin shuns the leafless spray,
And chants no more of love.

Yon orb emits a feeble gleam,
That lingers cold and lone;
Its evanescent titling beam,
Is telling joy has down.

Emblem of life, all nature wears
A robe of cheerless hue;
The storms assail like gloomy cars,
As sad, as frequent too.

But soon these clouds shall disappear,
The fields with verdure smile;
The bubbling brook meander clear,
The robins' note beguile.

The vernal showers shall dew the earth,
While genial suns illumine;
The beauteous flowers will spring to birth,
And golden harvests bloom.

Thus like the rays of winter's morn,
That cheerless prospects bring,
These gloomy cares precede the dawn
Of an unclouded spring.

A Judicious Inquiry.

A well known travelling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine whether it was wanted for a child or an adult, and if for a child they invariably recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. For sale by all druggists.

Benjamin-Moss.

The wedding of Miss Rosalie Benjamin to Mr. Morris Moss, which was celebrated at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Benjamin, at half past six o'clock Sunday, was a very pretty event.

The ceremony was in the presence of a large number of invited guests, and an elaborate wedding supper followed the services. Miss Rosalie Benjamin, the charming bride-elect, is well and popularly known here, and Mr. M. W. Moss is a successful business man of Atlanta, Ga. Miss Irene Benjamin, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr. Louis Moss, brother of the groom, was best man. The little flower girls were Miss Ruth Benjamin, sister of the bride; her two little nieces, Misses Clarice and Alice Dewald, and Miss Clara Louise Benjamin, of Atlanta.

The color scheme of the wedding was white and pink, the bride wearing an elegant gown of crepe de chine, elaborately embroidered, and trimmed with duchess lace. She wore the conventional veil and orange blossoms. The bridesmaid wore an elaborate net gown over pink silk, and the flower girls wore pink and white. The gifts were unusually numerous and elegant, comprising silver, cut glass, linen, mahogany and brass furniture and many articles of exquisite bric-a-brac.

The ceremony was performed by Rabbi David Marx, of Atlanta, and Rabbi Solomon, of Savannah, was present and assisted.

Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Loeb, of Charleston, S. C.; Mr. Isador Pinkusson, of Charleston; Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Dewald, of Savannah; Mr. and Mrs. C. Pinkusson, of Savannah, and the following Atlanta guests: Mrs. Moss, mother of the groom, and her two other sons, Louis and Reubin Moss; Mr. Simon Moss, Mr. and Mrs. N. The marriage of Miss Ernestine Alberti Brumby and Mr. Pierre McFarlane Bealer was solemnized Thursday, October twelfth, at five o'clock, at the home of the bride's brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Quarterman, Winder, Georgia.

The ceremony was performed in a beautiful, impressive manner by Rev. Alec Bealer, of Thomasville, Georgia, brother of the groom.

The bride was very handsome in a blue cloth suit with white taffeta waist. Her only ornament was a gold pin of quaint grape design, one of her mother's presents as a bride. The wedding was a quiet home affair, only the immediate members of the family being present. Mrs. Bealer, who is the youngest daughter of Mrs. A. B. Brumby, of this city, lived in Ocala for a number of years and is a most lovable young woman. Mr. Bealer is a prominent and successful business man of Atlanta, Georgia, being manager of the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company, importers.

Mr. and Mrs. Beal left on the afternoon train for Savannah, where they sail for New York.

After a several weeks visit to that city and other points, they will be at home at Inman Park, Atlanta, Ga.

Gold Medal for High School Scholars.

Dr. W. C. Lindsay, pastor of the Presbyterian church in this city, has offered a beautiful gold medal to the scholars of the high school department of the Ocala Public School. The medal will be given for the pupil making the highest scholarship and the best record in deportment will be awarded at the close of the school next May.

The medal will be a beautiful one and in itself will be worth working for to say nothing of the honor of winning the same.

Dr. Lindsay is due a vote of thanks for his deep interest in the school and for his having given the pupils such a splendid incentive to work harder than ever the coming year.

It behooves you to use the best fertilizer on your crops. Favorite Fertilizers are honestly made, and will give the best results. Lang, Swartz & Co., agents for Ocala.

An Outsider, a Former Citizen, has a Word to Say.

To the Editor Ocala Banner:

The present temperance campaign in Marion brings back to the "old timers" the two years in the long ago when Marion and Alachua were dry(?)

Those were the years of the club houses and blind tigers; [years of demoralization, when more drunkards and gamblers were made, and more done to destroy that respect for law, that is inherent in the Anglo-Saxon, than the open saloon were able to accomplish in double the number of years.

I am myself in favor of temperance and think with Sam Jones that "hell is the only place for whiskey," and I wish that every man, woman and child, in our loved land were not only temperance advocates, but were in very truth temperate people. If they were temperate people, they would understand that we can not get rid of an evil so widespread, so deep rooted, so hedged about with money as this whiskey evil, by simply voting a county or a state dry. Such vote, unless backed up by a very strong and active public sentiment, will be just about as effective in keeping out whiskey as is the Chinese burning of Joss sticks and beating of tom toms in exorcising the dreaded plague.

It is a great pity that these earnest, enthusiastic people can not take a broad view of this question and turn their energy and enthusiasm to building up a healthy public sentiment that will compel obedience to the law before seeking to vote (!) the county dry(!)

Without such sentiment the law will be evaded and men—good men, too—will condone such evasion and a want of respect for all laws will be engendered, whose far reaching influence for evil, God alone can estimate.

I am persuaded, sir, that we are still reaping in the wide spread grafting and corruption in our land the fruits of our own wrong doing in stuffing ballot boxes to get rid of negro domination.

Far better would it have been to have borne misrule than that good men by wrong doing should bring right and law into disrepute.

League Pillau.

Friday night, the woods just across the S. A. L. railway, near Mr. Mefert's place, were crowded with Epworth Leaguers and friends. Not less than one hundred tongues tasted the tender chicken, rice, pickles and bread. It was a rare treat and everybody enjoyed themselves.

Mr. G. W. Martin, known to his friends as Tex, was master of cooking ceremonies assisted by several of the ladies.

Dr. L. F. Blalock, Mr. Mathis and Miss Mary E. Bull were on the reception committee.

The large number of young people amused themselves at various games, seated here and there in little groups under the far-reaching limbs of the snarly old oak trees presenting a picture somewhat resembling a Gypsy camp.

The League is indebted to its amiable and efficient Third Vice President, Mrs. G. L. Taylor, for the splendid arrangement of the social event.

And in behalf of the League we wish to say that our socials are always open to the public and everyone will be cordially welcomed. None save the business meetings are held for Leaguers only.

Foxhall Keene had a narrow escape at Albertson's corner. He was making his sixth lap at a double reverse curve and was followed closely by Heath. Keene made one turn all right, but on going round the other the machine skidded and his machinist was hurled out in front of the car. Keene stopped the racer in time to save the machinist's life. Had the car gone 6 feet further, the man would probably have been killed.

Lytle's American machine threw out his mechanic, Tattersall, on a curve at Red Ground ditch, north of Roslyn, and Lytle went without him. Tattersall turned a somersault but escaped without serious injuries. A little further on Lytle picked up a new machinist.

Duray was delayed for six minutes at Hyde Park, and Heath was held up for a short time to make repairs to his carburettor.

Lancia when leading in the race had a collision with Christie on the Willets road, half a mile west of the double curve. Christie, following Lancia, and as the former came along Lancia pulled out of his way, but nevertheless the two cars came into collision and Christie's racer turned a complete somersault. The machinist of Christie's car had one rib broken and Christie's right leg was injured. The machinist was taken to the Nassau hospital.

Rumor of Arrest Denied.

Pittsburg, Oct. 16.—A report was received here today that Edward G. Cunliffe, the Adams Express money clerk, who is charged with the theft of $101,000, had been captured early today at Elkins, W. Va., and was en route to this city, in charge of detectives. When the train reached Connellsville, Pa., from Elkins, a large crowd had gathered at the station, but Cunliffe was not aboard. The conductor said the report of Cunliffe's capture had preceded the train and large crowds of people, anxious to get a glimpse of the prisoner, were at the stations between Connellsville and Elkins. The authorities and detectives in this city having in charge the search for Cunliffe, said the report of his arrest was untrue. Nothing new regarding the robbery was obtainable here today.

Charred Remains Are Found.

Chicago, Oct. 16.—The charred remains of Joseph Kantrun and his three months' old child were found in a closet beneath a stairway in a three-story tenement today after a fireman had extinguished a fire which is thought to have been of incendiary origin. During the fire a number of terror-stricken occupants of the house leaped from the windows. The firemen incline to a belief that the supposed incendiary was Kantrun and that his object was suicide. He had quarreled with his wife.
